Local Financial Professional Obtains Advanced QuickBooks ProAdvisor Certification

Garden City, KS – The local CPA and consulting firm of Lewis, Hooper & Dick, LLC recently announced that Jacque Smith, paraprofessional, obtained her Advanced QuickBooks ProAdvisor certification.

“This accomplishment demonstrates Jacque’s commitment to excellence. She is continuously seeking additional skill sets so she is able to deliver significant value to her clients,” says Gary Schlappe, CPA, Managing Member/Owner of Lewis, Hooper & Dick, LLC.

Smith joined Lewis, Hooper & Dick, LLC in 2007. As a paraprofessional, she provides bookkeeping, payroll and accounting services to the firm’s clients.

Smith received her Associates degree from Garden City Community College. She is currently attending Friends University where she is pursuing her Bachelor’s degree in accounting. Her anticipated graduation date is in 2012.

The QuickBooks Advanced Certification Course is designed to deepen the expertise of ProAdvisors who are already knowledgeable in QuickBooks, and distinguish these “QuickBooks experts” as highly proficient in this field. To ensure the foundational knowledge and experience of ProAdvisors who are eligible for Advanced Certification, one must complete 2009, 2010 and 2011 QuickBooks ProAdvisor Certification Courses; pass the QuickBooks Advanced Certification exam with a score of 85% or higher; and complete a bi-annual continuing education requirement.

Established in 1955, Lewis, Hooper & Dick, LLC provides value-added and affordable accounting and advisory services to clients throughout the region. The firm’s team of 6 member-owners and 18 professionals offer accounting, consulting, human resources, financial planning, and tax and computer services. Lewis, Hooper & Dick, LLC specializes in serving feed yards, municipalities, school districts, government entities and construction organizations.
