Local CPA Firm Adds New Staff Accountant

Garden City, KS – The local CPA firm of Lewis, Hooper & Dick, LLC recently announced the addition of Keysha A. Urie to its professional staff.

“We are excited to have Keysha on our team and I look forward to her contributions to the growth and success of our firm and community,” says Gary Schlappe, CPA, Managing Member/Owner of Lewis, Hooper & Dick, LLC. “Keysha has shown a strong desire to help our clients succeed, which is a desirable trait of any professional in our industry.”

In her new role, Urie serves as a staff accountant. Her responsibilities include providing audit and tax return services for clients across a range of industries.

Urie is a 2009 graduate of Fort Hays State University (FHSU) where she earned her Bachelor of Business Administration degree. She also received her Associate of Arts degree in 2005 from Garden City Community College. While in college, Urie was president of the accounting club and prepared income tax returns in the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance program. She also was very involved in community bands and orchestras, an interest she continues in Garden City. Urie is a current resident of Lakin, Kansas.

Established in 1955, Lewis, Hooper & Dick, LLC provides value added and affordable accounting and advisory services to clients throughout the region. The firm’s team of 7 member-owners and 19 professionals offer accounting, consulting, human resources, financial planning, and tax and computer services. Lewis, Hooper & Dick, LLC specializes in serving feed yards, municipalities, school districts, government entities and construction organizations.
