Local Accounting Firm Adds New Team Members

Garden City, KS – Lewis, Hooper & Dick, LLC recently announced the addition of Jacque C. Sowers, Sherry L. Cable, Levi Mitchek and Lisa L. Axman to its professional staff.

Sowers joins the firm as a paraprofessional. In this role, she will assist clients with payroll, bookkeeping, accounting and tax. Prior to joining the firm, Sowers was an office manager for Dan's Oilfield Services for two years. She is currently attending Garden City Community College, where she is pursuing her degree in accounting.

Cable serves as a paraprofessional at Lewis, Hooper & Dick, LLC. Previously, she worked at Hill, Inzina & Co., CPAs in Bastrop, Louisiana for ten years. Cable graduated from the University of Louisiana in Monroe, Louisiana, where she received her Associate's degree in business/office administration. She currently resides in Garden City with her husband.

Mitchek joins the firm as a staff accountant in the Tax and Audit Department. Prior to joining the firm, he served as a financial representative for Prudential. Mitchek earned his Bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of South Florida. He is active in the community and is a member of Mosaic's Run, Rock n Roll committee.

Axman serves as staff accountant for the firm. Previously, she worked as an accounting clerk at Rodolf & Todd for two years. Axman received her Master's degree in business administration and Bachelor of Arts degree in accounting and business administration from Kansas Wesleyan University.

Established in 1955, Lewis, Hooper & Dick, LLC provides value added and affordable accounting and advisory services to clients throughout the region.
