Local CPA Firm's Senior Accountant Nominated for the Women to Watch Award

Garden City, KS – Shannon Euliss, CPA, Senior Accountant at Lewis, Hooper & Dick, LLC, recently was nominated as one of the Emerging Leaders for the first ever Women to Watch Award, sponsored by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the Kansas Society of Certified Public Accountants (KSCPA).

“Being nominated as an Emerging Leader for the Women to Watch Award is an exciting accomplishment,” says Euliss. “As an Emerging Leader, I understand there is always room to grow as a professional, and I am committed to continually improving my skills and client service.”

Twenty-five KSCPA members were nominated this year, including thirteen Experienced Leaders and twelve Emerging Leaders. All nominated women will be honored on September 17, 2010 at the AICPA/KSCPA Women to Watch Awards Luncheon.

The Women to Watch Awards are given in two categories, Established Leaders & Emerging Leaders. An experienced leader is defined as a KSCPA/AICPA member who is in a higher level or leadership position within her organization, such as partner, owner, member, executive, elected official or appointee, etc. An emerging leader is defined as a KSCPA/AICPA member who is not yet in her highest level of advancement; however, she makes contributions to the profession and her community.

Euliss joined the firm in 2004. As a senior accountant, she supervises audit engagements and mentors and trains staff. In addition, Euliss prepares and reviews financial statements and tax returns. She has taken a lead within the firm serving as a member of the accounting and audit best practices and quality control committees. Euliss received her Master of Business Administration degree in accounting and Bachelor of Business Administration degree in accounting from Fort Hays State University. She is a current resident of Garden City.
